Seminar on “Women Entrepreneurship - Best practices among SAARC Countries”

Introduction:

A steadily growing tribe of woman entrepreneurs in India have been marking their identity, across domains and industries. From conventional woman-friendly enterprises like cottage industries to new-age startups, women have started holding the reins everywhere. While many Indian women have entrepreneurial ambitions, it is often more difficult for them to succeed. The main causes found are low confidence in business skills, difficult access to finance and networks, a lack of family support and child-care options, as well as insufficient safety in work and public spaces. Former President of India, Sri APJ Abdul Kalam said “Empowering women is a prerequisite for creating a good nation, when women are empowered, the society with stability is assured”.

Success of the enterprise depends on motivation by the family members, understanding the opportunities available and at the same time government policies, upliftment schemes for women etc., This programme aims to provide the information on the policy support, opportunities available and how women entrepreneurs are scaling heights in the select SAARC countries.

Objective
